DO YOU NEED A RESURRECTION?

We just celebrated the resurrection season where Christians remember and celebrate the fact that Jesus Christ died, was buried and rose again. It is a time for Christians to not only thank Jesus for what He did but to also be reminded of the fact that their salvation hinges on the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus. In many ways, it was that “first fruits” of all our resurrections that Paul described in Scripture.

It got me thinking today. Maybe at this point in your life, you have some things that you would like to see resurrected. Perhaps those cards and lengthy notes you sent your children and grandchildren have gone by the wayside and now you say, “I just don’t have time to do that anymore. I don’t know how I ever got all that done before.” Maybe the phone calls to close friends and family have stopped or at least cut back—because I’m busy and they are busy so not calling is better. Perhaps it is in the spiritual areas—I don’t read my Bible much anymore because it is so hard to read. Have you checked out audio books that read the Scriptures to you? Maybe you convinced yourself that you are too busy to pray, too busy to go to worship here on Sunday at 3:00 PM, or too busy to reach out and help someone else who is in need. I think that some of those things need to be resurrected in your life. They brought so much joy to you and those you love, and they will again.

Why not choose something to resurrect today and model Jesus?

Be Blessed, Chaplain Tom
